5. Animals will be accepted on the fairgrounds on Saturday, June 8 from 6:00 A.M – 8:45 A.M.
6. Judging will begin at 9:00 A.M., Saturday, June 8, 2024.
7. Entries cannot be added after the deadline whether they be faxed, emailed, or mailed.
8. Animals will be released at 1:00 PM on Sunday, June 9, 2024.
9. The show will provide all cages for the show. Only 1 bird is allowed per cage. Entries are $4.00 per pen with 1 animal per pen. Double cages can be requested for large fowl chickens if space allows.
10. Geese and Turkey cages are limited so entries will be filled on a first come basis.
11. Exhibitors will need to transport their animals in personal cages to and from the show. The show will not provide cages for bird transportation. All personal cages should be cleaned before and after the show.
12. Drinking water and shavings will be provided for show cages. Show may have cups and feed available on a limited basis but bring your own.
13. There will be no sale or exchange of animals on the grounds. What the exhibitor brings to the grounds is what they are required to take off the grounds.
14. All classes are based on the most recent American Poultry Association (APA) and American Bantam Association (ABA) Standards. All recognized breeds and varieties should be entered under their class based on the accepted breeds and varieties listed in the standards of both associations. All unrecognized breed and varieties of chickens should be entered under Class 7. Class 7 entries will be eligible for a class champion award but will not be eligible for higher awards.
15. Contact the Superintendent with any questions regarding which classes your birds belong in. Changes in class on day of show will be difficult.

Poultry Health Rules

1. Any bird showing swollen, weepy eyes, coughing/sneezing or signs of external parasites such as mites and fleas will be asked to leave the grounds.
2. All birds must originate from a U.S. Pullorum typhoid tested clean hatchery and/or flock. All hatchery documentation or Pullorum typhoid paper supplied by an Illinois registered Pullorum tester must be submitted with the entries. All exhibitors are required to have a copy of health papers with them when on the grounds.
3. NPIP members should mail in testing papers & NPIP paperwork copies with entries. Non-IL NPIP members must show testing paperwork that birds have been tested within 90 days of the show.
